16 DAYS OF ACTIVISM

Against Gender-Based Violence

Eastbourne stands together to end violence against women and girls

What is 16 Days?

25 November to 10 December

25 Nov — White Ribbon Day — Human Rights Day — 10 Dec

16 Days of Activism is a global movement that raises awareness of violence against women and girls and calls for action to end abuse in all its forms.

Have you seen a Red Chair?

Across Eastbourne, red chairs will appear in shopfronts, workplaces and community spaces. Each empty chair represents a woman or girl who should still be with us.

"These women and girls should still be with us."

White Ribbon Day

25 November

White Ribbon encourages men and boys to never commit, condone or remain silent about violence against women and girls.

Speak Up. Challenge Sexism. Be an Ally.

Human Rights Day

10 December

Everyone has the right to live free from violence, abuse and fear.

